

SSO SAULT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

WHO WE ARE

The Sault Symphony Orchestra is the oldest and largest performing arts ensemble in the region.

The SSO entertains and challenges audiences in our community with concerts of classical music, popular selections, ballet, opera, and musicals. The Orchestra members and the Symphony Board are committed to the continuation of our tradition of fine orchestral performances and appearances with gifted soloists and guest ensembles.

OUR CONCERT

Our May 15 concert is entitled "Mozart at the Movies." It will feature a collection of themes from movies and television, such as Schindler's List and Game of Thrones, as well as classical pieces such as Mozart's Symphony No. 25 (which many will know from the movie Amadeus).

We are selling 300 tickets to this concert, which will feature a cash bar and popcorn for purchase. Due to the unique nature of the experience, we expect a variety of ages to attend.

STEPHEN MALLINGER ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

For over thirty years, Stephen Mallinger has been active in the musical life of Sault Ste. Marie. Most recently, he has been appointed Artistic Director of the Sault Symphony Orchestra. He is Organist and Choirmaster of St. Luke's Cathedral, Music Director of the Algoma Festival Choir, piano instructor at Algoma Conservatory of Music and Algoma University. Educated at St. Michaels' Choir School and the University of Western Ontario, he sang in the Choir of Lincoln Cathedral before relocating to Sault Ste. Marie. Married to violinist Anya Mallinger, they have five daughters and two grandchildren.
